Prelude	'Tis the Gift to Be Simple	Bells

Call to Worship:

Leader: The hand of God rests upon this mountain.

People: We will be a haven for the poor.

Leader: The hand of God rests upon this mountain.

People: We will be a stronghold for the worn.

Leader: The hand of God rests upon this mountain.

People: We will be a shelter from the storm.

Leader: This is our God!

People: We are God's beloved mountain. By God's hand shall this mountain be moved!

Opening Prayer

O God, you are our God. Before the world was a speck of dust, your Spirit dreamed of us. You played on the strings of the universe that song you would sing with creation; you felt in your bones the steps you would dance with your creatures. Take our hands in yours; lift your voice with ours! And we shall move with you to the beat of a different drum, a drum whose sound has echoed through the ages!

Amen.

Mark 13:1-8

As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!"

"Do you see all these great buildings?" replied Jesus. "Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?"

Jesus said to them: "Watch out that no one deceives you. Many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and will deceive many. When you hear of wars and rumors of war, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth pains...."
